

CHAPTER 2 LESSON 2 SKILL TEST

Exercise 1: Classify this sentence.

1. _____ Three dangerous lions raced rapidly away!

Exercise 2: Use the Editing Guide below each sentence to know how many capitalization and punctuation errors to correct. Write the capitalization corrections and rule numbers above each word. Write the punctuation corrections and rule numbers below each word. Use the capitalization and punctuation rule pages to get the correct rule numbers.

1. no john you cant hike up temple mountain and camp at silver lake with james billy and larry

Editing Guide: Capitals: 9 Commas: 4 Apostrophes: 1 End Marks: 1

2. aunt sue my moms sister visited hoover dam in nevada on march 31 1993 during easter vacation

Editing Guide: Capitals: 7 Commas: 4 Apostrophes: 1 End Marks: 1

3. last july i went to an italian restaurant with joe my australian friend and ordered a caesar salad

Editing Guide: Capitals: 7 Commas: 2 End Marks: 1

Exercise 3:

Editing Paragraph

Find each error and correct it. Write the capitalization corrections above each word. Write the punctuation corrections below each word. Use the capitalization and punctuation rule pages to review the rules. (Do not write the rule numbers.)

Editing Guide: Capitals: 23 Commas: 9 End Marks: 7

san francisco is a city with lots of personality clanging cable cars carry visitors up and down the steep hilly and narrow streets tourists wait in lines to take their cars down lombard street the curviest street in america visitors to the pier can tour a world war II submarine watch the sea lions playing from the seal rock cafe or enjoy a performance by a street musician the nearby island of alcatraz offers a tour of the prison that once housed al capone the gangster chinatown known for its pagodas and exotic shops sits right in the middle of downtown san francisco yes san francisco is an interesting place to see

7th